Sir,

With reference to your official memorandum no: 602 dated 26th September 1902, I have the honor to report that the fixed "Jaadik" of the Seringapatam Chatram is sufficiently large to admit of feeding a few students, say about 10, permanently.

I am not sure, however, if there are any bona fide students who deserve this kind of help. The

The Sanskrit Pāṭāsala is practically closed owing to the death of the master, and the outbreak of Plague; and the English school is not, by reason of the unhealthiness and the proximity of the place to Mysore, likely to attract students from the surrounding Taluks.-

The fixed Jasdik is Rs 3,692-4-0. Of this sum, Rs 834 represents the cost of establishment; and roughly Rs 1800, the cost of daily feeding the travellers.-

There is therefore a balance of about Rs 1,000/- which is credited annually to the Surplus fund

I have the honor to be servant
